It's time to have your say...

As we journey ever closer to forming a Minster Community with the parishes around us, now is the time for you to have your say. In the words of the BCP marriage ceremony, 'let him now speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.' OK, it's not quite that drastic, but now is the time for you to have your say.

I am quite excited by our current plan which is for our parishes to be part of a Minster Community with Rothley, Sileby, Cossington, Seagrave, Loughborough Emmanuel, Loughborough The Good Shepherd, Thorpeacre and St Barnabas Grange Park. This is a great grouping and I couldn't be happier about it.

Our local coordinating group has discerned that we should look at what each parish can offer to the others in this partnership across five different areas.

- Ministry and People
- Discipleship and Mission
- Schools and Growing Faith
- New Worshipping Communities
- Resources (including Buildings and Finance)

To do this, there will be two days set aside for some working groups to meet and plan. If you want to have your say on how we will work together as a Minster Community in one of these areas, it is important that you come along and join in the conversation.

The first day will be on Saturday 7th September meeting from 10am to 3pm at Emmanuel Church, Loughborough. During this time, the groups will complete a document that outlines how we can work together in partnership in each of these areas. Tea and Coffee will be provided, but you will need to bring your own packed lunch.

Before the second day, the Coordinating Group will look at these documents and suggest any amendments that might be required. I am on the coordinating group to ensure that Mountsorrel is represented throughout.

The second day will be looking at the draft proposals and amendments and suggesting any further changes necessary. The second day will be on Saturday 9th November meeting from 10am to 3pm at All Saints Church, Thorpeacre.

It would be really helpful to know who is hoping to come along, so please can you email me (contact details on last page) to let me know that you are hoping to be there. We need as many people as possible to join in at this important stage of the process. Please don't simply leave it to others. Do join in and have your say.

With every blessing,

Colin Resch

We would love you to join us.

If you would like more information, please speak to Liz or Colin Resch.

Liz Resch

Mission Co-ordinator at Christ Church.

Working across the generations

As part of our continuing discernment about how we engage with our Community, I was pleased to present to both Church Councils a proposal to amend Linda Vesty's Job to that of Inter-Generational Worker. This role will help focus the mission and evangelism of our parishes in such a way as to increase the number of people of all generations coming to faith and joining the Church.

The proposal received the overwhelming support of the PCCs and we have now secured the necessary funding from the Mountsorrel Church of England Fund to make the transition.

I asked Linda to write something about her new role and this is what she says:

Starting on the 1st September, my role will be changing from Children and Family Worker to Inter-generational Worker. I shall still be supporting Alison with her Children and Family work, I shall support Kat with her Youth Work, I shall still be doing baptism visits, All Age Services -try taking that off me!!!! But the extra hours I have been given will let me concentrate on a whole slice of the village that at times we appear to forget. So I have listed some of the activities I shall be looking at to see how we can improve our links with the older generation in our village and have them joining in as much as possible. This obviously will have some problems, so please pray my new role, that I truly feel God has called me to, will benefit not just the people of Mountsorrel, but our Churches too.

Linda Vesty

Please continue to pray for Linda (and all of us on the Staff Team) as she takes up this new role.

- Joining the Senior Sunday service rota.
- Starting a new After School group with Kat.
- Visiting the Care Homes within Mountsorrel
- Forming links with those living in Sorrel Court.
- Working alongside Mel to take Holy Communion to the housebound.
- Afternoons in Church exploring faith and having some fun.

If you have any ideas of what we might be able to do, or if you feel called to help, please do contact me in any one of the usual ways.

1944 - 80 - 2024

Operation Market Garden 17th – 25th September 1944

Following D Day and the breakout from Normandy during July and August 1944 the German Army was thought to be beaten and in full retreat. Allied Commanders now sought ways to shorten the path to final victory and a plan was formed for a combined airborne and ground forces assault on the Rhine bridges to open a route into the heart of Germany to end the war for Christmas 1944. The plan was agreed on 10th September and seven days later Operation Market Garden commenced.

The operation had two elements, “Market” the 1st Allied Airborne Army consisting British 1st and US 82nd and 101st Airborne Divisions, and “Garden” the ground forces, British 2nd Army’s XXX Corps. The Airborne forces were tasked with seizing key bridges and choke points whilst the ground forces moved northwards supporting them and exploiting the gains.

The airborne element was the biggest ever mounted with 34,600 men, 1,900 vehicles and about 260 artillery pieces delivered by parachute and glider aircraft by 1500 aircraft from 22 airfields in the south of England. The two US Airborne Divisions were tasked with taking the southern bridges, those around Eindhoven, Grave and Nijmegen. British 1st Airborne Division were tasked with the most northerly, that between Arnhem and Oosterbeek.

On paper the plan looked challenging but achievable but problems were encountered from the start. The onset of bad weather coupled with fierce German resistance and counter-attacks slowed and at times completely halted the ground forces advance to support the dangerously exposed Airborne Divisions. Their position was worsened as the weather also seriously hindered resupply and reinforcement by air and at Arnhem 1st Airborne were unaware that the Germans had just deployed two SS Panzer Divisions to the area.

The initial airborne landings went well as did the advance north of XXX Corps which despite German resistance linked quickly with US 101st Airborne at Eindhoven and then the US 82nd Airborne at Nijmegen on 19th September. In Arnhem the position was difficult, the bridge had been rapidly secured but the lightly equipped paratroops were now under fierce attack from the Germans armoured forces supported by heavy artillery. By 20th supplies were running low with resupply delayed by the weather. Despite eventual reinforcement the bridge could no longer be defended, and British forces withdrew into the town itself. The Germans followed up with an armoured assault across the bridge and into the town. Surviving British forces were taken prisoner or killed during intense house-to-house fighting.

On 22nd the Allied Airborne Army's strategic reserve, 1st Polish Independent Airborne Brigade were parachuted in just south-west of Arnhem town to try and rescue the survivors of 1st Airborne. The Germans now tried to bottle up 1st Airborne to prevent escape whilst keeping the Poles stuck to the river banks. The ground forces of XXX Corps, still slowly advancing north, were now at last in range to provide artillery support to cover an escape route. British and Canadian Royal Engineers now managed to move forward, link up with Polish troops and using assault boats, ferry the survivors out of the area. On 27th September, the remaining troops at Arnhem surrendered to the Germans - marking the end of Operation Market Garden.

Despite the failure at Arnhem, Operation Market Garden was partially successful in that other key bridges were in now in Allied control, but the costs were high. At Arnhem alone Allied Forces suffered 1000 dead and up to 6,000 prisoners of war and in the advance north XXX Corps lost 1500. In the following months the Allies lost more men south of Arnhem as the Germans continually attempted to recover lost ground.

On 7th October 1944, US bombers destroyed the bridge at Arnhem to prevent the German use of it as a counter-attack route.

Canadian troops liberated Arnhem on 14th April 1945.

Come along to meet the Team, and see what we have planned over the next few months, including a new after school group. Find out about the groups we run at both Churches covering activities suitable for all ages. Or simply come along to enjoy the food, the company and the atmosphere.

Ride + Stride is a sponsored event for cyclists, walkers, joggers, runners, horse-riders, drivers and even bus riders.

50% of the sponsorship funds goes to the church chosen by yourself with the rest going to the Leicestershire Historic Churches Trust which uses the funds to give grants to churches for repairs, restoration and improvement projects.

You can even be sponsored for welcoming in church.

Both St Peters and Christ Church will be open on the day and we are Looking for volunteers to welcome those visiting both churches.

There will be signup sheets in both churches.

Dear Colleague,

I hope that you are enjoying the summer weather, now that it finally seems to be here! I am writing to encourage you and people at your church to join an event we are organising in September.

Did you know that 'Eco-Communities' is one of the five strategic mission priorities for the Leicester Diocese? It's easy to get involved and already dozens of our churches have signed up to become Eco Churches*

So, we are holding an Eco Church Conversations Day on Saturday September 14, 10am - 2pm, at Holy Trinity Church in Leicester. It's open to anyone, of any age, from any church.

This is a great opportunity to be inspired about your church's Eco Church journey. Whether you are just starting to think about how to work with the Eco Church award, or wondering how to achieve your next award, this is a chance to listen to inspiring speakers and be renewed in vision.

There will an opportunity to think through each of the 5 areas of the award and talk to key local people who might have the answer to your questions, including:

- JRI (John Ray Initiative) in teaching and worship;
- St Martins House in Buildings;
- Care for God's Acre in Land;
- Friends of the Earth in Global and Local; and
- Go Travel Solutions in Lifestyle.

Come and network, gather resources and support and be inspired as to how your community can care for God's creation! There will be activities for children as well as the grown-ups.

All denominations are welcome to come and join the fun.

A voluntary donation of £5 per person is suggested (to cover contributors' expenses).

To book, please follow this link:

Thank you

At the time of writing this, we still have two days to go. There will be a full Activity Week report in next month's Newsletter but for now we would like to thank you all.

Thank you to the Team Leaders who went above and beyond to make their activities just right for everyone who attended.

Thank you to all our amazing volunteers. those behind the scenes - especially the wives, husbands and children of the Team Leaders - and those helping out during the week. It just couldn't have been done without you.

But the biggest thank you is to the people of Mountsorrel who came along with smiles on their faces eager to join in and who laughed and accepted the mistakes/not going quite as planned moments that happened throughout the week.

As has been said many times before, Church isn't just on a Sunday, Church isn't the bricks and mortar, Church is the people within.

It really has been an amazing week and, dare I say it, roll on Summer 25!
