Remember Remember

I can, at times, be rather forgetful. For example, it has long been a standing joke in our family that I could wrap the children's Christmas stocking presents late on Christmas Eve and then, be just as excited as they were on Christmas morning, because I couldn't remember what the gifts were; or sometimes, I sit down to send an email. I open the email program on my phone or computer, read the ten new emails that have come in and then go off and do something completely different instead - only realising later that I still haven't sent that email.

I don't know if it is down to my ability to be easily distracted, or if it is my lack of ability to concentrate on one thing at a time, or just that I am very good at not remembering things.

That is one very good reason why I am grateful for November. This is the season of remembrance. We begin on All Saints Day (1st November) by remembering the saints of the past – especially those who do not have a dedicated day of their own. 2nd November is All Souls' Day and we remember those who have gone before us in faith – as the writer to the Hebrews calls them, 'a great cloud of witnesses' (Hebrews 12.1) and remembering their faith, encourages us in our own faith journey. Then comes bonfire night (I don't think I'll say too much about that one) and, of course, Remembrance Sunday (10th November) and Armistice Day (11th November) when we remember and give thanks for all those who served in conflicts past and present serving their country in defence of justice and freedom.

This season of remembrance ends with one final flourish: The final day of the Church's year – the Sunday before Advent Sunday – is marked as 'Christ the King'. On this Sunday (24th November) we remember that Jesus Christ is our King of kings. He is the one seated on his throne in heaven ruling over the Church. It is before him that the twenty-four elders fall down and worship as they lay their crowns before the throne and say,

"You are worthy, our Lord and God to receive glory and honour and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being." (Revelation 4.11)

Even if I were to forget everything else, may I never forget that Jesus Christ is the King of kings and Lord of lords. May he be my King now and for ever; and may he be your King too.

With every blessing,

Colin Resch

FELLOWSHIP GROUP AT THE VICARAGE

Day by day, as they spent much time together at the temple, they broke bread at home. (Acts 2:46)

Meeting in a small group to worship, study and pray together allows for more interaction and deeper study than is possible during a Sunday morning service.

We would love you to join us.

If you would like more information, please speak to Liz or Colin Resch.

Prayer Ideas

At St Peter's and Christ Church we support and pray for a number of different Christian Charities that work in this country and abroad to improve the lives of others and show them God's love and compassion.

Please find some prayer pointers to help us to pray for global issues and the Charities we support and their work throughout the world:

Tearfund:

Sunday November 3rd is the International Day of Prayer for the persecuted church. In the past year around 5,000 Christians have been killed simply because of their faith.

Over 14,000 Christian properties have been attacked and 4,000 Christians detained often in harsh and inhumane conditions. An estimated 316 million Christians live under significant persecution, facing daily threats to their lives, livelihoods and freedoms.

- Pray for persecuted Christians to stay steadfast in their faith.
- Pray for comfort and healing for those who have lost loved ones, homes or livelihoods.
- Ask God to mend broken hearts, restore hope and bring peace to communities.
- Pray for the release of Christians imprisoned for their faith.
- Pray for an end to forced conversions.
- Pray for the protection of female Christians from violence and abductions.
- Pray for God's wisdom and discernment for church leaders as they lead congregations in hostile environments.
- Pray for justice for the victims of persecution and for legal reforms that protect the rights of Christians and other minorities.
- Pray that those who persecute Christians would come to know the love and forgiveness of God.
- Pray for Governments and Organisations to advocate for the rights of Christians and to put pressure on authorities to end the persecution.

War/Conflict :

As we lead up to Armistice Day & Remembrance Sunday we remember the areas of the world where there is currently conflict and its costs;

physical, emotional and economic:

- Pray for an end to the continued conflict between Ukraine and Russia.
- Pray for peace in the Middle East.
- Pray for those who have lost loved ones, homes, livelihoods and their communities.
- Pray for those who have had to flee their own countries and are now refugees.
- Pray for all the aid agencies who are working in difficult and dangerous situations.
- Pray for the members of our own armed services and the roles they play across the world in different conflict zones.

Pray continually (1 Thessalonians 5:17)

Liz Resch

Mission Co-ordinator at Christ Church.

Godparent Sunday

The All Age Service held last month was attended by a number of families who we might not have seen since their baptism service, along with a few families that are slowly getting more and more involved with the Church following their own baptism service. Mel and Linda tried to work out which was best being a Godparent or a Godchild and of course chocolate was involved.

Baptism is a real joy to be involved with, so if you think you would like to help welcome these children and their parents into our Church family, please do talk to either Linda or Mel.

Proof that there is definitely power in prayer!

If ever any of us are in doubt about the power of prayer ignore those thoughts creeping in!

Over the past year I have been so blessed having the love & prayer support of so many, not just for myself but my family too.

Being honest, it has been a frightening journey to be on, but right from the start I held onto "Footprints in the Sand", which throughout the years has meant a lot to me.

To-day 17th October and my being discharged from hospital by my surgeon, Gavin & I were told "Go home, enjoy Christmas & The New Year". We've never had a Christmas Greeting so early.

As if right on cue, just a few nights before seeing my surgeon again, I came across the following:-

"When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill...
Stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem worst that you must not quit".

By Edgar A. Guest

To me, having received what I considered the worst possible diagnosis, without the loving support of so many family and friends far & wide, plus, if I'm honest 'my attitude of mind in not giving up', I most likely would not be where I am today.

Please continue with your prayers as I still face further hospital appointments with regards to a two year maintenance plan and also as I now work to re-build my strength.

Love & Blessings to you all and thank you.

Mountsorrel Remembrance Services 2024

Whilst both our churches will be holding Acts of Remembrance within their Sunday Services on Remembrance Sunday, 10th November there will, as is usual, be the village Remembrance Parade and Service at St Peter's in the afternoon. The Parade will depart from the Green at 2:30pm for the Service at St Peter's at 3:00pm and later return to the Green at about 4:00pm.

The parade is a civic event and is organised by Mountsorrel Parish Council supported by the Mountsorrel Branch, Royal British Legion, but is made possible by the volunteers of Mountsorrel Community Team (MCT) who manage the essential road closures for the parade to pass along safely. MCT always welcome more volunteers to help with this so if you feel you could lend a hand, please contact them by email at Volunteers@the-mct.co.uk.

Armistice Day Service Monday 11th November 2024

At 11:00 on Monday 11th November there will be a Field of Remembrance Service at the Peace Garden (junction of Market Place and Sibleby Road) organised by Mountsorrel Branch, Royal British Legion. If you would like a Poppy Cross to lay at this service, they are available at the Reception Desk of Mountsorrel Memorial Centre.

Mountsorrel Poppy Appeal 2024

Despite the passing of the years the work of the Royal British Legion is as relevant and vital today as it was in the aftermath of the First World War. That conflict saw the foundation of the charity to provide life-long support to serving and ex-serving members of the British Armed Forces, their families and dependants through hardships, injuries and bereavements.

The work is funded through the annual Poppy Appeal to which this village has always been a very generous supporter. In late October the Mountsorrel Branch Royal British Legion will once more have left Poppy collection boxes around the village and they will also be collecting in person at Dobbies Garden Centre on 27th October, Christ Church Craft Fair on 2nd November and at Waitrose Supermarket on 2nd and 3rd November.

Every poppy sold helps the Royal British Legion to make a difference to the lives of people in our Armed Forces community - so please wear your poppy with pride and dig deep, knowing that you are supporting our Armed Forces community.

Flowers: Thank you for your help

A year ago, we asked if anyone could help with the flowers at St. Peter's, we had a wonderful response and for the recent harvest festival, this is a result of those that were able to come and decorate the church for that occasion.

Dear Liz,

Re: Alex's Wish Donation

We wanted to write to say a huge thank you for your amazing donation of £527.52 that you gave to us after our Speaking Event.

Every donation is crucial in enabling us to continue our work because whatever is happening in our world, we know one thing for sure and that is that Duchenne never takes a break, doesn't slow down and is still claiming young lives today and every day. Your kindness and generosity are very much appreciated.

The money that you have raised will support:

- Cardiac research, as too many boys are losing their lives due to heart complications – one of the many issues facing those living with Duchenne.
- Driving better care standards for those living with Duchenne, despite where they live across the UK.
- Finding a cure for all living with Duchenne.

All of which will make a huge difference to all those living with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy.

Thank you so much for your support, it is much appreciated.

Best wishes,

Emma Hallam

Sunbeams

Continuing our focus on the New Testament, over the last few weeks, Sunbeams have heard a couple of the Jesus stories we don't seem to tell so often. We counted to 10 lots of times as we explored the story of the Ten Lepers and the man who came back to say thank you, and we counted even higher than ten with lots of coins as we retold the story of the Widow's Offering reminding ourselves that generosity isn't about how much we give. We also enjoyed the story of the precious pearl which Jesus told to describe the kingdom of heaven.

We've enjoyed all our usual play activities, crafts and singing time and are looking forward to lots more fun, play and stories of Jesus through this term.

All parents/carers with babies to pre-school children are welcome to come along to Sunbeams; 9.30-11.30am on Mondays at Christ Church.

Septembers Muddy Church was rather different! Everyone arrived to warm sunshine ready for some outdoor fun.

Unfortunately, for once, the weather forecast was correct and 20 minutes in, the sky was dark, thunder was rumbling in the distance and rain looked imminent!

As the lightning reached the field next door, we headed inside for safety just before the huge downpours of rain began!

Thankfully, we had managed to toast a few marshmallows whilst outside, so once inside we enjoyed hot chocolate and exploring autumn treasures. The children enjoyed creating creatures from clay with the autumn treasures and of course googly eyes!

Hopefully next month, will be storm free and we can enjoy being back outdoors!

Muddy Church will meet again on Saturday 23rd November at 4.00pm in the Vicarage Orchard, behind the Church.

Baby groups

Beyond the Bump has now concluded and 5 of our mums have continued on to our Starting Rite course with their babies. Our first two sessions have explored how we see God and how much God loves us. We've played peek-a-boo, babies have investigated their reflections using mirror card and mums had a lovely bonding session with their babies through baby touch as we thought about love.

It is always wonderful to ask mums to describe their feelings towards their babies and then reflect that this is how God feels about each of us, His children.

Ministry in our School

Collective Worship times at school have changed; the children now all have collective worship at the start of the day. As both key stages have this separately but at the same time we have had to make some changes ourselves. Colin and I now both go into school every Wednesday morning to lead collective worship alternating between us, Key Stage 1 & 2 assemblies. It is a lovely way for the children to start their day and equally lovely for us to be going into collective worship every week.

Assembly Squad Lunchtime Club paused for this first half term whilst we reorganised to accommodate a change in lunchtime organisations at the school. We will begin our lunchtime sessions again after half term and hopefully we will have some of these children leading our Nativity Service in December.

THE GAP

An After School Club every Wednesday during term time.
3pm for a 3.30pm start @ Christ Church

Our first session was after the November's newsletter deadline, but each Month we will have a theme to explore and then on the last week in the month there will be a short celebration followed by a sit-down meal for all. November will see us looking at the story of Noah, bringing it up to date and looking at:

- New start,
- Peer pressure
- Trusting in each other and God.

FORGIVENESS

Starting 24th November

For those in years 6-9

A chance to explore the Bible and how it relates to us

Help needed

We need 3-4 people to volunteer to help Kat lead this group on a Sunday morning. You don't need to be an expert in the Bible, just a desire to explore scripture alongside our young people.

Our Baby Loss Awareness Service was held on the 15th October at St. Peter's. Once again there were only a few who braved to go somewhere that they knew would upset them. Standing at the front I could quite clearly see the pain these few courageous mums and dads were in.

The names of our lost babies were read out, there was a short bible reading from 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 and 12&13; then we had a short talk about how no-one can really know what or how you are feeling until they have walked in your shoes. And each shoe is different and once on, they can't be taken off.

There is no footprint so small that it doesn't leave an imprint on this world.

The last month has been spent talking with a number of different people about what they would like me to be doing to encourage people of different ages to get involved with our Churches and to see and feel the love of God maybe for the first time. I have spoken to folk down at St. Peter's as well as visiting Rose Cottage where both staff and residents were keen to be involved and have visits from me and other members of our Churches, sometimes to sing, sometimes to worship, sometimes to play games and sometimes to sit quietly to reflect and pray. A new warm space started at St. Peter's on Monday mornings 10am-12pm and our new, after school group, The Gap, started at the end of last month with a Light Party. However there are still a 101 things that I could be doing, so please let me know if you can think of the 102nd.
